The Two Democratic Conventions. Their Correspondence by Telegraph --Extra Billy" gets Miffed and Holds off-No Compromise.

From the Breckinridge Convention at Charlottesville, on the part of the committee of five, appointed to confer with the Staunton Convention, and composed of the following members-Hon. Wm. Smith, of Fauquier; J. A. Jones, of Richmond city; J. W. Massie, of Rockbridge; Benjamin Bassel, of Upshur, and Samuel can be elected by said vote; the vote in Carpenter, of Alleghany-Ex-Gov. Smith made the following report:

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Aug. 18, 1860. To Wm. M. Ambler, President of the Democratic Convention of Virginia: Sir:—On the 16th inst. the Convention adopted the following resolution: "Resolved, That a committee of five be appointed by the Chair to communicate with the Staunton Convention, with a view the committee counselection of Fauquier; James Alfred Jones, of 'Rullit to James W. Massic, of Rockbridge; mond; James W. Massic, of Rockbridge; Beniamin Bassel, of Upshur; Samuel Carpenter, of Alleghany.

Owing to the lateness of the hour at which the committee was appointed, and the difficulty of getting it together, I did not obtain a meeting until the morning of the 17th inst. Upon conference, your committee concluded upon the following me of the appointment of a committee consisting of Messrs. M. G. Harman, J. L. Willson, J. H. Cox, J. N. Ligatt and Chas. Chas. IRVING. Irving, Esqrs.

BY TELEGRAPH FROM STAUNTON] To Gov. The committee from your convention will be expected in Staunton with the train.

you the propriety of adopting the same ticket and roting for the same electors the voters designating on the tickets their preference for Breckinridge or Douglas, as the case may be; the electors to cast the vote of the State in conformity with the majority thus ascertained. WM. SMITH.

To this proposition I received no response until about 9 P. M. But, in the meantime, I received the dispatches herewith communicated. To the first of them no response was sent, as I concluded we were entitled to a reply to my proposition of the State should dispose of the votes of the State; and, moreover, the proposition was radically objectionable, as it wholly disregarded the rights of the majority to control the vote, and placed a minority upon an equality with a majority.

To the second no answer was given, because we could not doubt it was well understood in Staunton that no extra train was to be had in Charlottesville, and that it was equally impossible, at that late hour, 8 00 to meet in the Blue Ridge by private conto meet in the Blue Ridge by private conveyance. Besides, I thought I was entitled to an answer to my neglected suggestion, that the vote of Virginia conform to the will of a majority of her Democratic voters. The Wolf Cry Again. [From the Philadelphia American.]

Now that the election of Abraham Lincoln is conceded to be certain by the canof this Convention, through M. G. Har- did men of all parties, and the good sense man, of a committee of five appointed by the Charlottesville Convention, whose duty prospect of his administration as a happy it is stated to be to ascertain the disposi- and fortunate relief from the corrupt, imtion of this body as to the union and har-mony of the disrupted Democracy; therereResolved, That we cordially reciprocate home, by an excess of ultraism as prothe pacific spirit that prompted the ap-pointment of said Committee, and hereby the cry of "disunion," and are fulminating authorize and empower the President of their impatient menaces in the hope of this Convention to appoint a similar Committee of five, whose duty it shall be to confer with the Charlottes the convention, and report to this body the result of ably, supposes to be a very terrible manifeato, got up in his usual Mexican fashion; Committee appointed by the Convention with pompous phrases and lofty declaration. He is a very harmless gentleman, and is to be left out of the next Congress, which may explain this last pyroteclinic exhibition. Col. Orr, formerly Speaker, the same State, is out in a long letter urging the same extreme resortin case of Mr. Lincoln's election

To appreciate the motives of these threats, it must be borne in mind that the Legislature of South Carolina has to elect a Senator in place of Governor Hammond, at the session in November, and these three patriots, with a multitude of other modest aspirants, as candidates for the vacancy. When Gov. Hammond entered the Senate in 1855, he was regarded as one of the most southern extremists, and being among the largest slaveholders in Congress, was adopted, both from his conceded ability and from interest, as peculiarly a representative many and polyness than the control of t sentative man. It required only a short experience to satisfy him that the charges so industriously propagated through the south, of hostility in the north to its interests and institutions, were fabricated for effect, and had no substantial existence. Under this conviction he made the memorable speech two years ago, among his own neighbors and friends, which excited such general comment, and considering the man and the circumstances, made such favorable impression. The fire-caters were afraid to combat his positions, or to provoke a controversy which would neces-sarily divide the sentiment. They were striving to consolidate at home. But they were none the less resolved to strike him down at the first opportunity for uttering such unpalatable truths, The time is at hand, and hence, and hence the zeal of Keitt and company, who, we venture to predict, will be disappointed and defeated.
